RELIEF FOR THE DESTITUTE.

The terrible conflagrations in the North-west have resulted in far greater loss of life, and in entailing greater sufferings than the terrible calamity at Chicago. We give, in another column, upon the highest authority, an account of the terrible destruction of lives caused by the sweeping fire-belt in Michigan and Wisconsin. The great destitution thus occasioned calls aloud for relief. Every city, town and hamlet must do its duty. We need to open our hearts and hands, and send help to these suffering thousands. Let our people go to work, for we assure them their aid is needed. We have read page after page narrating these disasters, so much more than we have space for, that we can only say, but few realize the extent of these misfortunes. The Cincinnati Gazette says on this point:

"The horrors of the great timber fires have been so gradually accumulating that it is quite doubtful if the country realizes that throughout vast regions of Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota there has been a destruction by fire of property and of life perhaps unparalleled in our history. We have before us papers from Michigan and Wisconsin, and also the Minneapolis Tribune. We speak without the least exaggeration when we say that column after column is taken up with accounts of the devastations of the wood fires. Whole counties have been desolated. Acres on acres, miles on miles of timber land have been laid waste. Property whose value can only be estimated by the hundreds of thousands of dollars has been destroyed. The houses that dotted the country have been swept away; lives that are counted no longer by the tens, but by the hundreds, have been lost."

When we realize that in these extreme Northern sections the winter begins with November, and that even the early breezes of October are cold and penetrating, we can better appreciate the necessity of prompt relief. The winters there are long and severe, and many a houseless sufferer will perish unless some aid reaches them. We hope the people of East Tennessee will not suffer this great appeal to pass unheeded. We have not a great abundance, but we can nevertheless give. Let our people organize, and let every town and district resolve to send something. We hope the work already begun here will be pressed forward, and that all classes will cheerfully aid in the great work.

ANOTHER NEW DEPARTURE.

This seems to be an age of new departures with the Democracy. They follow, one after another, in rapid succession. Before the public mind is satisfied as to the meaning of one, another springs up more startling than the last. We have general new departures, intended to apply generally, and we have special ones, which influence only certain localities. The latest and most startling new departure is that of the Missouri Republican, the leading Democratic paper of Missouri. After the developments of last week, in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Iowa, that journal comes out in a leading editorial, favoring the policy of neutrality on the part of that party in the next Presidential campaign. It grows sick, no doubt, in the contemplation of withering Democratic defeats, and gives it up. Notwithstanding it, with other Democratic sheets of this country, has been feeding its readers upon the silly idea of Republican disintegration, it has no courage to again stem the tide, with certain defeat staring it in the face. Hence it throws up the sponge and admits that the Democratic party can not succeed before the American people on its own merits. With the experiences of the last ten years, the party never will succeed upon its own merits, and if it ever comes into power it must be through divisions in the Republican party. The position of the Republican is significant, and shows that even the leaders of the party are debating the question whether or not it will not be just as well to allow the Republican nominee the privilege of walking over the track.

The public printing organ of this city took from the pockets of the tax-payers, last year, the comfortable sum of thirteen hundred and ninety-five dollars, for publishing the Supreme Court decisions. That "feed" enabled them to keep their organ grinding last year, and of course they are anxious to continue it. They profess to be deeply concerned for the dear people in this matter, but not quite enough to print these "very important" laws free, now that they can not get pay for them. Could they not show their deep affection for the people by giving them a few of these important opinions without being paid for it? Can not the dear people understand why this sheet is so much concerned in their behalf in this matter? Thirteen hundred and ninety-five dollars is a good little sum for them every year, and of course they want the decisions published. Not for the money they are to get, you know, but for the benefit of "the people!"

McNELLY, of the Cleveland Banner, is something of a philosopher. He don't want any of the public printing, and thinks if he could even procure a couple of hundred dollars as "hush money," he wouldn't have much left after counting his traveling expenses, board, "big drinks," &c., at Nashville. The Press and Herald, and other members of the "ring," will rejoice to know that McNELLY's honesty, relieves them from the expense of paying him "hush money," and his reasoning on the subject shows that he takes the whole thing very philosophically. The fact is, McNELLY is too honest to go into a scramble for anything, and yet his devotion to Democracy prevents him from speaking his mind.

SPEAKER VAUGHN RESOLVES.

Mr. Speaker Crawl. Vaughn introduced the following resolutions in the Senate last week:

Resolved, That the thanks of this Legislature are justly due, and hereby tendered to Governor DeWitt C. Center, for the very able and wise administration of the past two years, and that the people of Tennessee will ever hold in grateful remembrance his devotion to their interests, especially in being the one to confound upon them the right of the ballot so unjustly taken from them by which they were enabled to save glorious old Tennessee, though in a damaged condition, from bankruptcy and ruin.

DESTITUTION IN CHICAGO.

Some Interesting Facts.

CHICAGO, October 15.—It commenced raining here at 6 o'clock yesterday morning, falling quite heavily for two hours, then a drizzling shower prevailed. Never was rain from heaven more grateful. The dust from the unsprinkled streets and the ashes which covered the burnt district like a pall of snow, have filled the air to the dreadful discomfort of everybody.

The atmosphere, too, has been so dry and hot that breathing was difficult. The parched lips and bloodshot eyes of every one compelled to be out of doors attested the furnace-like heat. The apprehensions felt by the waterless inhabitants of the burnt portion of the city, in regard to a further conflagration, have been greatly allayed by the timely showers. The heavens are still overcast, and it is hoped there will be still more abundant rain, and that it will be widely extended. The rain has extinguished the flames in the wood and lumber yards and the latent fire in the coal yards. Many thousands tons of coal are saved and apprehensions of further danger from the fire no longer exist.

The Sabbath has been recognized in a marked manner in all the churches left standing. In many instances two and three congregations of different religious tenets have worshipped in the same edifice at different hours.

THE BANK VAULTS.

The opening of the vaults and safes continues to be prosecuted as rapidly as possible. In most instances, so far, the contents have been found more or less in a perfect state of preservation. In some cases a heap of charred leaves and melted tin boxes are all that are found.

The Republic safe is one of this class. Only four of thirty or forty boxes contained therein being preserved. The funds in the cash box inside the safe shared the same fate.

The vault of the custom house was opened to-day. It contained $1,000,000 in gold and $2,000,000 in greenbacks. The gold was melted into an almost solid mass, but is safe in the shape of bullion. The greenbacks were entirely consumed.

CHICAGO, Oct. 13, 1871.

Hon. A. S. Davis, Mayor:

MY DEAR SIR: I am quite well satisfied that Mayor Mason never wrote the telegram asking for potatoes, vegetables and flour, as he yesterday informed me that they had no need of such articles at present. They do need covering for ladies and children; also, to make five thousand muslin sheets for beds, as hundreds of invalid females have nothing on them but the rough gray blankets. We also want donation of woman's cloaks, woolen stockings and, in fact, everything that women would require who were called at midnight to flee for their lives, with no time to dress themselves. Do not, under any circumstances, let the idea obtain a foothold that contribution of clothing should cease. If you could see the desolation, as I have seen it, and witness the scenes of woe and absolute want to be seen everywhere, your heart would be roused to the deepest sympathy, and your voice would unite with mine in asking relief for this deeply stricken people. L. C. HOPKINS,

ORPHANS' CONCERT!

BY THIRTY CHILDREN.

FROM LAUDERDALE SPRINGS, MISSISSIPPI.

Orphans' Home.

FELLOW CITIZENS: By the urgent solicitation of the Trustees of this Home, we have been conducting a series of Concerts for the benefit of Helpless Children of the Confederate Dead.

This year we provide for 200 children. About 100 are now asking for admittance into the Home. Will you help us provide for them? While most of these are the children of fallen Confederate Soldiers, a majority of them are the children of Masons and Old Fellows.

"One of the largest and most fashionable audiences which ever assembled in our Theatre was present last night to greet the sweet little orphans from Lauderdale, Miss. There were about thirty of these little children on the stage, and their singing was as sweet as the warbling of the mocking bird."—(Alabama State Journal, (Administration Organ, Montgomery, Ala.)

The Theatre last evening on the occasion of the Concert by the Confederate Orphans, was literally jammed and packed by a patriotic and sympathetic audience, anxious to hear the tender voices of the little ones. The reception of the Orphans in our city and the success of their concert last evening amounted to an ovation, and for the sake of the past, the present, and the future, we are glad that it was so."—(Savannah Morning News.)

Our boys are now making the brick, and we are endeavoring to raise money to build more substantial houses that the children may be taken from their old shanties before another winter, and that these houses may stand to bless orphans yet unborn.

Come and hear the children, the scene will awaken the better emotions of your nature.

FOR THIRTY-ONE YEARS

PERFECT DAVIS

PAIN KILLER

Has been tested in every variety of climate, and by almost every nation known to Americans. It is the almost constant companion and inestimable friend of the missionary and the traveler on sea and land, and no one should travel on our LAKES or RIVERS WITHOUT IT.

PAIN KILLER was the First and is the Only Permanent Pain

Reliever.

Since the PAIN KILLER was first introduced, and met with such unsurpassed sale, many Liniments, Panaceas and other remedies have been offered to the public, but not one of them has ever attained the truly enviable standing of the PAIN KILLER.

WHY IS THIS SO?

It is because DAVIS' PAIN KILLER is what it claims to be—a Reliever of Pain.

Its Merits are Unsurpassed.

If you are suffering from Internal Pain, twenty or thirty drops in a little water will instantly cure you. There is nothing to equal it. In a few moments it cures

Colic, Cramp, Spasms, Heart-Burn, Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Flux, Wind in the Bowels, Sour Stomach, Dyspepsia, Sick Headache.

In sections of the country where prevail, there is no remedy held in greater esteem.

FEVER AND AGUE

Every housekeeper should keep it at hand, to apply it on the first attack of any Pain. It will give satisfactory relief, and save hours of suffering.

Do not trifle with yourselves by testing untried remedies. Be sure you call for and get the genuine PAIN KILLER, as many worthless nostrums are attempted to be sold on the great reputation of this valuable medicine.

Mount Vernon, Ill., April 29, 1871.

Messrs. J. N. HARRIS & Co., Cincinnati, Ohio:

Gentlemen—I heard one of my customers speak in such high terms of Allen's Lung Balm to-day, that I thought I would write you the substance of his statement. He says his mother, who is now sixty years of age, has suffered with consumption for several years, and has been under the care of all our best physicians, but never received any permanent benefit; then she resorted to most every kind of Cough and Lung Balm that could be procured for her, but all to no avail. She still grew worse, until she was confined to her bed; and when she was released with a paroxysm of coughing, she would lose the power of respiration, and they were compelled to resort to various means to restore breathing; and while she coughed so hard she could not expectorate anything, and the family and friends had given up all hopes of her recovery. Her son noticed the advertisement of Allen's Lung Balm in the Christian Advocate, and they thought they would procure and try it. They commenced giving her the Balm at 5 o'clock P. M., as directed, and in a very short time, she was enabled to get up and walk about the house, and expectorated a mouth full of dark yellow matter, and since that time she has continued to improve. She now walks all day, and can walk about the house and take considerable out-door exercise. Her son bought more of the Balm to-day, and he is recommending it very highly to every one.

Yours, respectfully, A. C. JOHNSON, Druggist.

Was there ever greater proof of merit than the case this letter refers to?

ALLEN'S LUNG BALM is without doubt the best expectorant remedy ever offered to the afflicted public. It contains no opium or any form, and its use is harmless to the most delicate.
